Journaling Special Memories

Virginia Chavarria

Friday, June 15, 2012

Do you find yourself saving items you don't really want to get rid of? Bring those mementos from special trips, weaving projects, drawings, scraps from a special dress or project, poems, stamps, ribbons, maps--the list is endless. Let's create a collage of memories together and save these items in a special way. A kit will be provided composed of basic pages--some colorful, some with windows, all ready for you to design, glue, draw and write upon.

Virginia has always had a fascination for fiber. At the age of seven, she pestered her auntie Beatrice to teach her to sew the beautiful peacock with colorful threads. As soon as she was given a basket of embroidery items, she was on her way to creating her first project. Another aunt taught her how to crochet and she eventually taught herself how to knit. She loves the fiber arts and attending the "University of the Fine Art of Weaving" where she continues to learn more. She loves weaving so much that she has said that she will be asking permission to take her loom to heaven!

Several members have asked whether samples and the paper copies of Bobbinwindings will continue. You will have the choice as to whether you wish to receive Bobbinwindings by mail or email/website. Samples will continue to be supplied. We are working on the ability to post our samples on the website, so in the event you lose your sample, a virtual copy will be available. Any future changes regarding this matter will be approved by the Board.
